What do I need to bring?

A great attitude with a desire to learn is a must. Also, be sure to bring the following: Bible & pen, sleeping bag, pillow, casual clothes, church clothes for Sunday (blue jeans & D-NOW shirt), work clothes for Saturday (closed-toe shoes), toiletries, bath towel, a 2-liter drink and your favorite snacks. This is not an all inclusive list, just remember you will be staying in a host home from Friday night until Sunday morning.

What should I be sure NOT to bring?

Be sure not to bring a bad attitude, video games, tobacco products, lighters, matches, or anything that could damage your host's home. Also, leave a mindset to prank and mess with other people at home!! In order to keep cell phones from being a distraction, they will need to be turned-in to host homes during Bible Study times & bedtime.

1. You will be responsible to keep yourself healthy.

The use of tobacco products, alcoholic beverages, illegal drugs and over-the-counter non-prescription products are prohibited.

2. You will be responsible for the safety of yourself and others.

Possession of fireworks, firearms, guns and Knives is prohibited.

3. You will be responsible to follow the D-Now schedule.

No changes will be made in assignments or the schedule without permission of the Youth Minister. In consideration of others, lights out should and will be respected.

4. You will be responsible to stay in designated D-Now areas.

For your own safety and security, you must stay with your group at all times. Your Hosts & Co-Hosts must know where you are at all times. You may not leave D-Now without prior permission of the Youth Minister.

5. You will be responsible for the security of yourself and others.

We will all need to respect one another's property and possessions by not tampering with or taking another's belongings.

6. You will be responsible for maintaining a clean environment.

You will need to do our best to keep your Host Home clean and free from litter. We will be careful to respect the property and grounds of the place you call "home" for the weekend.

7. You will be responsible for exhibiting a Christlike Spirit.

We will strive at all times to exhibit the best attitude toward one another, our hosts, our leadership and the residents of the community. We will not abuse one another's property or personality.

These responsibilities are designed to make the weekend a pleasant experience for all involved. If participants choose not to accept these responsibilities, they forfeit the privilege of project participation and will be sent home.

I have read the responsibilities above and agree to follow them during the weekend of D-Now. My parents and I understand that failure to do so will result in disciplinary action and the possibility of being sent home.
